CALL FOR CANDIDATES

Gender Transformative Leadership Program Advisory Group

Women in Global Health

Background

Women in Global Health (WGH) is a global movement with the largest network of women and allies working to challenge power and privilege for gender equity in health. Started by passionate advocates for gender equity in 2015, WGH has grown to include over 70,000 supporters in 90 countries and has 41 official chapters, with a strong presence in low- and middle-income countries. The global team with the network of chapters drive change by mobilizing a diverse group of emerging women health leaders, by advocating for existing global health leaders to commit to transforming their own institutions, and by holding these leaders accountable.

WGH works in collaboration with global health and gender equality agencies and organizations such as the World Health Organization, Gavi, Global Fund, and UN Women, and has been featured in CNN, NPR, EuroNews, the Lancet, and Devex for its work and maintains a robust presence via in-person and virtual events at major global health and international development forums, such as the World Health Assembly, UN High-Level Political Forum, and UN General Assembly. WGH is unique in its approach, connecting global and national policy-making to local reality.

Program Advisory Group:

The Women in Global Health (WGH), Gender Transformative Leadership Program (GTLP) will work in collaboration with two influential Global Health organizations building on existing knowledge and best gender equity practices and develop an overarching Framework for Gender Transformative Leadership. This framework aims to provide parameters to serve for use across the Global Health Sector.

Together, WGH with these Global Health organizations will co-create actions, building on progress already made and use iterative learning practices to address and develop innovative responses to existing gender inequities. Key accountability moments will be built into this process as well as shared learning between and with each organization over a 30 month period.

Buy-in from senior leadership will be acquired through the signing of Memorandums of Understandings and the Framework for Gender Transformative Leadership will result from this collective collaborative learning process.
Description of the role

Objective:

- The objective of the GTL Program Advisory Group (GTLP-AG) is to provide strategic guidance to the Program Director and team to support optimal outcomes of the program.

Mandate

- The Program Advisory Group will be composed of individuals with key skill-sets that can act as a sounding board, provide expert advice and support the team in strategizing to ensure best outcomes of the program.
- Using individual skills and working as a team – this group will support the Program Director and team to innovate, overcome barriers and think outside the box.
- Program Advisory Group members are requested to remain for a minimum 12 months.

Core Responsibilities

- Provide strategic guidance on the multiple iterations of both the Program action plans and various outputs eg. reports, framework development, etc, of the GTL Program.
- Challenge the program team, providing knowledge and guidance to ensure that program actions are evidence based, robust, and designed to achieve the desired outcome.
- Act as ambassadors and collectors of WGH wisdom within the WGH Chapters and wider network.

Composition

The Advisory Group shall be chaired by one senior leadership member from WGH.

The composition should:

- Reflect the principles and values of WGH and the GTLP program
- Aim for maximum diversity (experience, knowledge, geographies, etc.)
- Have complementary skill sets outside or additional to existing skill sets in the project and WGH leadership team.
Application:

We are seeking people with the following experience:

- Global health, Gender equity, Ethics, Human Rights, Healthcare, Organizational change, and/or Advocacy.
- If you are interested in driving the agenda for women in leadership in global health, we encourage you to get involved.
- Priority will be given to Women in Global Health Chapter members.
- Minimum 10 years of relevant experience required.
- Working knowledge of English is required.
