

Global Chapters Peer to Peer Meeting Agenda
September 23rd – September 28th 2022
Venue: Hilton Hotel, Nairobi Kenya

Introduction

Women in Global Health is a voluntary global network, built on the passion and dedication of WGH Chapter members and their commitment to enact, influence and ensure gender transformative leadership in health globally. This 2022 Peer to Peer meeting in Nairobi is the first convening of the global WGH network of 41 chapters and staff since WGH's formation in 2015.

Meeting Objectives:

The purpose of the meeting is to take stock of this rapidly growing, women-led movement; to dialogue around the future of the movement and the global community of practice that is Women in Global Health; and reinforce solidarity across borders amongst like-minded women.

This meeting seeks to

- Bolster our shared values and uphold our determination to achieve gender equality and equity.
- Acknowledge and build upon the work done by the WGH network to date.
- Match, manage and set expectations for collaboration around our networks
- Agree on a common direction of travel to forge the building blocks for WGH collaborative action going forward
- Further develop our women-led movement to address power and privilege for gender equity in health.
