

2022

HIGHLIGHTS

JANUARY

Called for gender transformative leadership at the WHO #EB150

Published #FitForWomen policy report calling for the protection of women health workers with PPE designed to fit women's bodies and needs

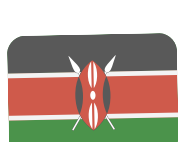

FEBRUARY

Accepted as a Non-State Actor in special relations with WHO, the only NSA dedicated to equal leadership for women in global health and gender equity in the health workforce

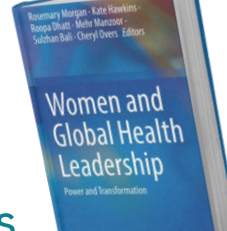

MARCH

Called for gender equity in health, through seven events, while celebrating women's diversity and history during Women's History Month

Launch of the WGH Kenya Chapter

Together with partners, we launched the first book to recognize women's leadership in global health: Women and Global Health Leadership

APRIL

Contributed analysis and recommendations to member state negotiations for a Pandemic Instrument

Launched first of a series of town hall meetings with global CSOs to end sexual exploitation, abuse, and harassment in global health in partnership with Femnet and ARSF

Launch of the WGH Philippines Chapter

MAY

Called for gender transformative action in global health with our first official delegation to the #WHA75 which had 28 women from 22 countries

Constituted team to work on the Gender Transformative Leadership institutional strengthening program

Launch of the WGH Zambia Chapter

Launch of the WGH Switzerland Chapter

Published #PayWomen policy report examining the unpaid and underpaid work done by at least six million women in health systems

JULY

Advocated for gender equality during the High-Level Political Forum on Sustainable Development

Called for gender-equal leadership during one of six high-level events hosted by the Gender Equal Health and Care Workforce Initiative in 2022

AUGUST

Brought visibility to sexual abuse and harassment in health at the IFMSA General Assembly

Instituted the WGH Global Chapter Steering Committee to provide a structured platform for WGH chapter engagement

Contributed language to the Zero draft of the Pandemic Instrument discussions

SEPTEMBER

Launched #HealthToo platform to document stories of women in health experiencing sexual exploitation, abuse, and harassment of women health workers

Represented gender on the UHC Taskforce leading to the UNGA High-Level Meeting in 2023

Held first in-person strategy and capacity-building meeting of the global WGH movement in Nairobi, with global staff and representatives of 41 national chapters

OCTOBER

Recognized 17 outstanding awardees at the #HeroinesofHealth Gala

Called for gender-equal leadership at the WHO EMRO Regional Meeting

Brought visibility to the "Great Resignation" of health workers at the #WHS2022

NOVEMBER

Hosted the Asia Regional Town Hall on the prevention of sexual exploitation, abuse and harassment in health, 1 of 4 regional town halls WGH hosted this year

Called for an end to sexual harassment and abuse in health during the 16 Days of Advocacy Against GBV

Launch of the WGH Brazil Chapter

DECEMBER

Brought visibility to gender-responsive UHC through digital advocacy campaign during #UHCDay

Published the #HealthToo policy report to expose the prevalence of sexual abuse and harassment in the health workforce

Launch of the WGH Spain Chapter